S. N: To the Forty-Third Congress, With an Appendix, Containing the Action of Congress and Extracts From Congratulatory Letters The within Memorial having achieved its object, I have added to the limited number of copies remaining in my hands an Appendix containing the action of Congress, and extracts from congratulatory letters since its adjournment. The latter will show my friends how universal was the sentiment in the Navy, as well as out of and beyond it, that I had been wronged, and have only been restored to the place my services entitle me to. I scarcely need say the personal congratulations received have been much more numerous than the written ones. I would have it understood that this pamphlet is not for general circulation, but for the gratification of a few interested friends, and for preservation in the libraries of historical societies with my former pamphlet, printed in 1562 - The Chase of the Oreto - as my defence against the aspersions of any future Boynton historians. A stern chase is (proverbially) a long chase. It is much easier to create a wrong than to correct one, and mine has been no exceptional case; for it is only after years of persistent effort, and obtaining redress step by step, that the wrong done me has been fully and completely righted. When in XS62, while yet in command of the Oneida, off Mobile Bay, Commander (now Rear Admiral) James Alden, endeavoring to break to me the news of my summary dismissal from the service, said to me: - Preble, the newspapers are down on you for letting the Oreto...
