Particularly has this been the case recently in relation to the strike of the garment workers in Chicago and in the general question of the sweating system. In this matter Hull House has been foremost, calling and through Miss Addams conducting the great anti-sweating meeting of March 8 at Central Music Hall, and making a strong and telling appeal for arbitration in the clothing strike. Miss Addams's address in favor of this arbitration, made before the Central Council of the Civic Federation, March 19, was admirable and fairly settled the question of the standing of the Federation in the matter. A welcome addition to our residential and working force comes in the person of Dr. Mary Edna Goble, a graduate of the Illinois Training School for Nurses and of the medical department of the University of Michigan. Dr. Goble will have charge of the tenement house inspection and of the instruction in household sanitation, first aid to the injured, etc. Through her medical skill the Settlement will come into more vital touch with its neighbors in their homes, and into closer co-operation with the Illinois Medical College in the Commons dispensary work for the poor. The residents of Chicago Commons have decided upon Tuesday afternoon and evening as the weekly occasion upon which they will make special effort to be at home to their friends. This is not intended to restrict visitation...
