Beverly O Neill was the child of an alcoholic. Beverly O Neill was the first - and so far the only - big city mayor to be reelected as a write-in candidate, winning a third term in Long Beach, California. Beverly O Neill couldn't bring friends home from school because she never knew whether her father was going to be drinking or just gone. Beverly O Neill watched the Navy and the aerospace industry leave Long Beach, but managed to revitalize the city as an economically diverse waterfront urban center. Beverly O Neill started working at age 13, and hasn't quit since. Beverly O Neill was the first female president of Long Beach City College - in a time when colleges weren't supposed to have female presidents. Beverly O Neill...
