Excerpt: . . . 11 ensure taxpayer data safety, we required each participating company to obtain both a privacy and security seal certification. These programs, administered by third party providers, certify that taxpayer re-turn information will be protected from unauthorized access during the tax preparation process. We also encourage taxpayers to visit the companys privacy and security policy located on their commercial Web site. Indeed, taxpayer security and privacy are woven throughout the Free File process. Tax return preparation is accomplished using proprietary software approved by the IRS. Transmittal is through the established IRS e-file system. As I mentioned, each Alliance member must obtain a third party privacy and security certification. Alliance members must also comply with all Federal rules and regulations on taxpayer privacy for paying and free customers. These rules prohibit use of tax return data for purposes not specifically authorized by the taxpayer. Finally, the information taxpayers provide through the Free File Wizard will be used solely to help taxpayers select a free service; thereafter it will be deleted. The IRS only retains the officially-filed return information. TAXPAYERS WITHOUT HOME COMPUTERS Mr. Chairman, as I previously discussed, Free File is premised in part on the principle that no one should have to pay to file a return. That includes taxpayers who do not have access to a computer. Low income should never be a barrier to quality service, including free electronic filing. Free tax preparation and e-file are available in many communities through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs. Volunteers help prepare basic...
