

The Way Home (Paperback)

By Judy Norwood Enter

Judy Norwood Enter, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bobby Chapin reluctantly returns to Charleston, the city of his mangled childhood, summoned there by his father's death in a plane crash and the unwanted job of settling his wealthy estate. Rachael, his stepmother and one-time family friend, becomes his affable agent and savvy sidekick as Bobby, under protest, steps into his father's shoes and traces his philanthropic life through the Low Country of coastal South Carolina, North Carolina, the Bahamas, and Haiti. A sole dark secret, the key to the destruction of his family that began in the racially volatile South before Bobby and his brother, Jeff, were born, is discovered in his dead mother's journals. The ugly revelation leads Bobby and Rachael to Arlington, Virginia to meet a former Special Ops soldier, Mitchell Cummins, who owns a boutique security firm. Fate or irony? Mitchell proves to be a savior when Rachael is terrorized in impoverished, crime-ridden Port-au-Prince, Haiti while finishing work on a children's home. The life or death circumstances place Bobby in the unthinkable position of trusting this dark...
